in collaboration with ELTAI Theni Chapter

About us:

Theni Kammavar Sangam was established in the year 1972 by the service minded philanthropists of Kammavar Community with the aim of providing value based education to the poor and rural area students. With the aim of developing rural area into technology forefront, the society started Theni Kammavar Sangam College of Technology (TKSCT) in 2007. The Sangam runs other institutions viz., Matriculation Higher Secondary School, Public School (CBSE), Polytechnic, Arts & Science College, Teacher Training, College of Education, Catering and ITI. TKSCT strives to produce socially responsible, creative and productive citizens who can contribute to the development of the country and succeed in the global society.

The Department:

The Department of English is one of the best and dedicated disciplines ceaselessly educating and motivating students with quality content. The department has well qualified and experienced teaching faculty. It also conducts seminars and encourages the students to present papers in various seminars. We have conducted two National Conferences on New Perspectives in ELT and published the selected papers of our previous conferences in UGC approved online journal.

The Conference:

This maiden attempt of the department focuses on ELT in its broadest sense. The realm of language teaching is thrown open to the presenters to choose Research in English Language Teaching. ELT focuses on various aspects in the English Language Teaching. Globalization has brought with it a wave of opportunities for the youth to excel in their career. It also brings with it many challenges.

Thrust Areas:

1. Improving the Learning Environment
2. Problems in Teaching & Learning English
3. Innovations in ELT
4. English Teachers as a Techno Pedagogue
5. Proficiency in English Enabling Employability
6. Benefits & Effects of E- Learning
7. Impact of CBT in ELT
8. Fluency & Accuracy in Communication
9. Enrich the Slow Learners

Areas enriching English Language Teaching are also accepted.
