

National Seminar on The employment and empowerment of Unorganized Women Workers

14 April 2019

A One day national conference was organized by Bhartiya Mahila Kaamgar Manch in collaboration with ELTAI, NCR-Greater NOIDA Chapter on The employment and empowerment of Unorganized Women Workers on 14th April 2019 at Gandhi Peace Foundation, New Delhi. The conference started with the lamp lighting followed by Saraswati vandana sung by Ms. Jayanthi Iyengar.

Ms Anila Shukla, Founder Chairman, Bhartiya Mahila Kaamgar Manch welcomed all the delegates and guests. Ms Bharti Sharma, Social activist talked about domestic violence and the ways to overcome this issue. Guest of honour, Ms. Kalyani Menonsen, Social Activist and a member of WSS (Women against sexual violence and state repression) talked about various issues of violence against women The Chief Guest of the Inaugural, Ms Monica Arora, lawyer, practicing in Supreme Court of India talked about Women Rights (KAL AAJ AUR KAL) and shared the tips to know and exercise their rights. The tea break was followed by inaugural session.

The idea and ideology of Bhartiya Mahila Kaamgar Manch was shared by General Secretary OF BMKM. Then Ms Mala Vohra Khanna, Child & clinical psychologist who has won many international awards discussed the importance of SELF LOVE. The next speaker, Ms. Tulika Jha, chief operating officer, Bhartiya Harit Khadi Gramodya Sansthan discussed the approaches of Women Entrepreneurship and skilling. A song of Khori Village sung by BMKM members was the representation of skills of unorganized women. Ms Hemlata Kansotia, Founder of Labour Education and Development Society shared the new methods for self-help and livelihood. Dr Shravan Kumar, National Vice-President interacted with women of unorganized sector and discussed the importance of communication and effective ways of communication which help in employment. Ms Jayanthi R Iyengar, an IT professional, a successful business entrepreneur, shared her views to spread the awareness on higher dimensions of thinking, using inclusiveness for growth and development.

The Seminar ended with vote of thanks by Dr M B Singh Chauhan, Vice-President, BMKM.